

Please stop giving companies the right to force themselves upon us. As an American Veteran I fought for freedom. That included the freedom to sit down to a quiet meal with my family. Don't give corporations more rights than individual Americans.